TAMMY HOWL

The Tammy Howl, a magazine for the alumnae as well as the students of Gulf Park College, has three co-editors for the 1968-69 school year. Since the Tammy Howl is published three times a year, each editor has taken the responsibility of editing one issue. Cathy Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Latham of Columbia, Tennessee, is the chief editor for the December issue. Taking the editor position for the May issue is LeMoine Otjen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Otjen, Jr., of Enid, Oklahoma. Diane Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart, of Florence, South Carolina, is the chief editor of the August issue.

The Tammy Howl is extremely lucky to have Mrs. Mary Blackwell, who is originally from Jackson, Mississippi, but now makes her home in Long Beach, for its sponsor. She not only teaches here at Gulf Park, but also at Jefferson Davis Junior College.

The editors and the sponsor, along with a very enthusiastic staff, are working to create an enjoyable Tammy Howl for everyone.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It has been most gratifying to receive such good reports on the aptitudes and attitudes of the students on campus this year; I wish to congratulate you.

Special thanks go to the Sophomores for the mature leadership which they have shown since the beginning of the year. The Panhellenic Council gave a great deal of time to their sororities and moved away from the high school "Hell day" to the collegiate "help day." The new class and club officers were very wisely selected and are aiming toward excellence.

The Faculty of your college is the best qualified one that I have seen in my tenure at Gulf Park. I can assure you that they are very interested in doing everything possible to prepare you for your role in life.

We are making every attempt to modernize the curricula and the physical plant. It is our hope that we will be able to continue the renovations of Hardy Hall this summer and that you will be one of the lucky ones to get a "new" room.

Judging from the good beginning we have made thus far, I have every reason to believe that this will be the best year in the history of Gulf Park College.

WILLIAM SADLER

President

ANNIVERSARY GREETING

Marine Lt. William W. Riggs, whose wife lives in Pass Christian, Miss., and who is fighting in the jungles of South Vietnam around Phu Bai, wanted everybody to know about his first wedding anniversary. He arranged to have a portable billboard stationed on Hwy. 90 at Pass Christian. Riggs is with K Co., Third Battalion, Fifth Marines. His wife is the former Sydney Elaine Jones of New Orleans and Pass Christian. She is a graduate of Gulf Park College, Long Beach. They have a two-month-old son.

President Sadler in student interview.

STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As you view the wind-swept shores in front of Hardy Hall you know that you have made the right choice. Stepping through the gates a feeling of warmth sweeps in. It is as though a voice were saying, "Welcome, we have been waiting for you." The arms of the Friendship Oak reach out and take you in.

The year of 1968-69 I feel will be one of Gulf Park's greatest. With a great deal of high hopes, enthusiasm, cooperation, and endless energy and a group of girls with new ideas and concern, I feel that the student body can progress a long way in accomplishing its expected goals.

My fondest wish is that through our unified efforts and many experiences we will have benefited from being on the campus and that Gulf Park will be a better college by reason of our having passed this way.

Welcome, and the best of luck to you all!

Sincerely,

Vicki Eshelman

Student Body President 1968-69

STEWARDESS

Miss Michael (Mickie) Harper, who was voted campus favorite at Gulf Park College, Long Beach, has become a stewardess with World Airways of Oakland, Calif., the largest charter airline in the world. She is now flying to Europe and the Far East, accompanying large tourist groups in World's fleet of Boeing 707 jets. She graduated in 1966 from Gulf Park and went for two years to the University of Texas.

Friday, Sept. 13, 1968

Dear Col. Wink:

Maybe I shouldn't write you today seeing that it is Friday, the 13th. I found a short newspaper article and thought I would send it to you. It's sort of weird as compared to a "military view."

How have you been? Still eating those apples for lunch? I think of you quite often, Col. Wink; and I miss Gulf Park so very much. Really I wish I were there now instead of the University of Kentucky.

This summer I met a man named Valkenburg, who is a world renowned geographer, at the Phi Theta Kappa Institute. I commented to him and Mrs. Nosal, along with several others, that he reminded me of you — just like a great big "teddy bear." Of course, I never heard the end of it. I thought he was a wonderful man, an excellent lecturer, just like the man he reminded me of — you.

I think of you and GPC so often, especially when I see all the other girls up here from school — Linda Wills, Judy Groseclose, Kathleen Keiter, Ellen Mott, Lucy Carol Johnson and Carolyn Kirby. Patti Gesler is now an airline stewardess. Sandy Shoemaker underwent major surgery (emergency) last week, but she is doing fine now. Mitzi Tate is attending Transylvania College here in Lexington.

Guess I better close now. Please give Dean Johnson, Mrs. Ferrell and Mrs. Lumpkin my sincerest regards and tell them I'll be writing very soon. Best of luck throughout this year. Give your classes my regards and tell them I wish I were sitting there with them.

Love ya,
Pat

PS

Let Me not forget Mrs. Perdue by any means.

SCHOOL OPENS!

I went to the machine and put my dime in
I pushed the Coke button and the machine, it did spin.
Down came the ice and the Coke was poured up,
But lo and behold, where was the cup?

DANCING ANYBODY?

by

Mary Finch

As tradition serves, the new school year began with a dance called the Mixer. Invitations were sent to boys attending Jefferson Davis and those at Keesler's AFB and the Seabee's Base. Tables were set up around the school auditorium and the stage was transformed into a band stand. Within a few hours, Gulf Park was converted into a teenage discoteque. Most everyone had a good time.

The next school dance was held on October 19. This party seemed to have a better turn out than the first one and the atmosphere was even more perfect for a night of fun and dance.

The officers at Keesler have arranged to invite Gulf Park to a dance every two weeks. A bus is sent to pick up those girls attending. The dress is casual. Most of the girls really seem to enjoy these dances, although they say that they out-number the boys.

All of the girls are anticipating the coming Thanksgiving and Christmas dances. Both are to be held the weekend before the holidays.

This year is going to be really great at Gulf Park and we, the students, intend to make the coming dances the best Gulf Park has ever had!!

THREE COINS IN A FOUNTAIN?

Admiring the Hardy Court fountain on arrival are three freshmen, Sharon Murphy, Jayne Houghland and Polly Lister. Carol Craven, sophomore hostess, shows off the familiar landmark on the front campus.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

by

Carol Craven

Gulf Park has added to its faculty nine new ambitious teachers. Most of the new teachers are from Mississippi.

Mrs. Julianne Boyd, the public speaking and dramatics teacher is originally from Pennsylvania. She graduated from Adelphi in Garden City, New York, where she worked in the Adelphi Summer Theatre for two years. Before coming to Gulf Park she spent two years in New York City. She is presently in Gulfport with her husband, a dentist in the Air Force.

Mrs. Mary Blackwell, the English teacher is from Jackson, Mississippi. She graduated from the University of Mississippi, where she earned her BA and MA. Mrs. Blackwell has taught the 9th and 10th grades at Yazoo High School in Yazoo City, Mississippi, also she taught at Jefferson Davis Junior College.

A new face to students but a familiar face to the faculty is that of Mrs. Dot Merdinger. Mrs. Merdinger taught at Gulf Park three years ago. She has taught privately for the past three years after the year that was spent at Gulf Park. Mrs. Merdinger graduated from Sullins and studied in London for two years with Sadlers' Wells Ballet School. She danced with Robert Jeoffrey's Radio City Music Hall and with Charles Weidman Modern Dance. Mrs. Merdinger is from the the Mississippi Delta.

Miss Jane Bruce Wilder is our new equestrian teacher, also from Mississippi. She was graduated from Stephens' College in Columbia, Missouri, with her AA, and from the University of Southern Mississippi with her BS. For the past three years Miss Wilder has taught in a public high school in Florida.

Mrs. Rita Balch who works with reading skills graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi with her BA and did graduate work at the University of Michigan and Stanford. She taught study skills at Stanford and English at Granby High School, Virginia. Mrs. Balch was the leading consultant at Humboldt College and worked in educational psychology at Michigan State. She taught reading and study skills at Jefferson Davis Junior College, and lives in Long Beach with her husband and two sons.

Mrs. Susan Bagwill, a new teacher in the retail merchandising department, graduated from Sacred Heart College in Grand Coteau, Louisiana, where she received her BA. She was an assistant buyer for D. H. Holmes Company in New Orleans before coming to Gulf Park.

Harry Spell, Jr., is our new chorus and voice teacher. He graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi where he received his BA and MA. He was the principal bassist for the Jackson Symphony. Mr. Spell lives in Long Beach with his wife and daughter.

Miss Eva Trouilly teaches physical education. She was graduated from Louisiana State University where she received her BA and Loyola of New Orleans where she received her MA. Miss Trouilly is retired from the New Orleans Public School system.

Miss Valorie Nybo is another new physical education teacher. She was graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi where she received her BS and is now working on her Masters in Education. Miss Nybo has traveled in England, Ireland and Scotland.

The Reverend Ray Worthington is the new Religion teacher. He is the minister of an Episcopal Church in Long Beach. He lives in Long Beach with his wife and son.

With these new teachers and our others the students should have a rewarding academic experience at Gulf Park College this year.

ASSISTANT POSTMISTRESS

Misty, whose formal French name is Mystique, is Mrs. Perdue's new assistant postmistress. Mrs. P's beautiful black Ribbons was killed accidentally last summer while in camp in Maine, a sad occasion. However, Misty has found her way into the hearts of students and faculty alike and is quite at home helping out in the mail room.

GULF PARK ADDS MERCHANDISING COURSE

by

Phyllis Garner

Caveat Emptor, meaning "let the buyer beware," is a new organization at Gulf Park College. It is open to those students in Retail Merchandising who wish to pursue attractive careers of buying and selling in the retail business. The emblem of the organization was designed by Miss Laura Wilkinson and was presented for the first time on place cards when the dinner was held at the Broadwater.

A year of long anticipated excitement and growth has begun with a bang in the new Retail Merchandising Department at Gulf Park. On Wednesday night, September 18, a delightful dinner was held at the Broadwater Marina in order that the enrolled students and faculty participating in the program might get acquainted.

During the month of October, the Merchandising students were still on the go. Sophomore students in the department, under the direction of Miss Helen Pickiing, were responsible for carrying out the fashion show in Assembly on October 2 entitled "Self Realization Through Clothes." On October 25 the twelve Merchandising students and chaperones, Mrs. Bagwell and Miss Brock, departed for Dallas to attend one of the largest apparel markets in the world. The trip consisted of five days of exciting experiences which were both fun-filled and rewarding. Other points of interest seen through guided tours were Neiman-Marcus, the city of Houston, and the Astrodome.

Selling internships began on November 18 and will continue through December 20. Each student will work on a full-time basis of forty paid hours per week. This actual on-the-job experience is vital to one who wishes to enter the retail business. The following local stores are participating: Brumfield's, Dorothy Brown Shop, Ellis Salloum's, Fasold's, Gayfer's, Godchaux, Ideal Shop, La Boutique, Northrop's, Penney's, Purple Lantern, and Shamis'.

An employee whose personal appearance and manners are such that she will be an asset wherever she works, is a must. Therefore, a Personal Appearance Clinic is provided so that there will be an emphasis on good grooming, posture, and proper etiquette. Since a cultural background is also essential in business and community life, the students attend special programs, plays and operas in New Orleans and on the Coast.

THE MIRACLE WORKER

by

LeMoine Otjen

When dramatized by William Gibson the rebirth of Helen Keller becomes a very demanding play for the students of Gulf Park. The Miracle Worker is the remarkable, true story of a deaf, dumb and blind child who through the actions of her teacher, Annie Sullivan, is brought into the normal world. Presented on November 20, 21, 22 and 23 under the direction of Miss Helen Picking, The Miracle Worker brought well earned praises to the drama department.

The opening scenes depict Helen Keller's infant sickness which causes her disabilities. Helen's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Keller, are ably played by Mr. James Maxwell and Melissa Huston. After many years of useless dishearting searching for help for the tantrumes Helen, vividly portrayed by Lynn Coleman, a teacher is hired. The only person who is able to "unlock the little safe with the unknown treasure inside" Helen's teacher, Annie Sullivan, is personified by Patti Schrader.

The early rehearsals could easily have been mistaken as sequences from Batman. The slam-BANG, Pow, Zip, - Zot knock down dragout struggles resulted in enumerable bruises for both Pati and Lynn. For realism the fights between Helen and her teacher had to be actual blows which the actors often felt through their padding. When The Miracle Worker was first produced in October of 1959, there was much publicity about the realism used, even during rehearsals of the fight scenes between Anne Bancroft and Patty Duke.

Supporting roles were played by Betsy Hogg as Aunt Ev, Rozzie Bird as the Maid Viney, Mr. Anaganos by Mr. Edward M. Craig, and Tom Merchant as James Keller. Bobby Johnson, Kathi Abrahamson, Pruddy Hutton, Mary Craig, LeMoine Otjen and Gayle Maurin completed the cast.

As there were four men in the early life of Helen Keller so were there four in the lives of the cast for The Miracle Worker. Mr. Jim Maxwell who had the male lead as Capt. Keller is an attorney for the Employment and Securities Division of the State of Miss. His wife is the former Gulf Park music teacher Miss Archer. They reside in Gulfport with a five year old son. Mr. Maxwell has participated in dramatic productions while in college at Ole'Miss, the Gulf Coast Theatre of Arts and the Gulfport Little Theatre. He has portrayed Colonel Pickering in My Fair Lady; and Capt. Cook in The Barretts of Wimpole Street. He also had roles in The Moon Is Blue, Student Prince, Teahouse of the August Moon, and one previous experience at Gulf Park in The Merry Wives of Windsor. Mr. Maxwell says he very much enjoys being in Gulf Park productions because of the excellent direction.

Mr. Edward M. Craig has seen most of the Gulf Park dramatic presentations and thinks it is now nice to be in one. Mr. Craig played the role of Mr. Anaganos but between scenes he kept an eye on his 12 year old daughter Mary who also had a part in The Miracle Worker. Besides Mary he has two sons and four grandchildren. While living in Pass Christian Mr. Craig has participated in the Gulf Coast Theatre of Arts as Edward Barrett in The Barretts of Wimpole Street, the Gulf Coast Little Theatre as Patsy in Three Men On a Horse and the Bay St. Louis Theatre as Petrovin in Anastasia. Being an Engineer for General Electric Company has given Mr. Craig the opportunity for travel and thereby permitted him to be active in theatres in Denver, California, New York and Michigan.

The part of James Keller was filled by a young Keesler Air Force Officer, Tom Merchant. He graduated from Milton College in Wisconsin with a BA in theatre and continued his studies there for one more year in graduate school before joining the Air Force as a newswriter at the Office of Information. Tom was in many college productions, and also in summer stock at the Green Ram Theatre of Wisconsin. Mr. Merchant said, "After once leaving college and joining the Air Force it is fun to get back to college life." He feels that this is his world because it is young and alive. He thought The Miracle Worker was a good opportunity for him, especially at an exciting college like Gulf Park. Tom's wife is now teaching high school English and Tom hopes to joini her in the profession by teaching drama at the college level as soon as he leaves the Air Force.

Bobby Johnson, age 7, from the second grade at Jeff Davis Elebentary, son of Dean and Mrs. Johnson, represented Percy, a young negro servant of the Kellers. Bobby's former experience entails a part in last year's Christ-program where he had to kick Coca. He feels his part in The Miracle Worker was hard because he had to appear in four different scenes. In one scene he had to watch them bring a ladder to get Annie out of her locked room. Bobby can't read yet but he says he had no problem learning his lines, just problems in saying them loud enough. Mr. Johnson seemed to like it best when he could go to the back of the auditorium and play with a bright orange rubber ball.

WRITHE FIVE

by

Diane Stewart

If by any chance one wandered into the speech workshop and found a dimly lighted room with checkered clothed tables, heard the sipping of cokes and the munching of popcorn, one had arrived at Gulf Park's "in crowd' review. The Dance, Drama and Music Departments were presenting its annual review which this year was entitled WRITHE FIVE. This lively, mad, mod review was a take-off on the NOW GENERATION with sketches of gerus, "pot", hyppies, education, campus life, and blind dates. Along with the Gulf Park girls, nine MALES from the Keesler Chorus brightened the normally female stage with their voices. songs and dances.

From the Gulf Park student body were Laura Asplin, Suzie Cole, Cathy Gurnsey, Nancy Griffith, Kay Neely, Muffet Triggs, Bette Norwood, and Donna Thompson along, with Jeri Bernadoni Curt Dearmin, Mike Hogan, Steve Nylus, John Philipe and Gary Turner from the Keesler Male Chorus. The success of the three night performance would have been impossible without the direction and assistance of Mrs. Julianne Boyd, Miss Helen Picking, Mrs. Dot Merdinger and Mr. Donald Christmas. The Jet Maskers' Club sold refreshments, painted scenery, altered costumes and other various things any production would call for.

Mrs. Boyd felt the combination of drama sketches with song and dance gave the girls a chance to bone up on their acting and the student body an idea of the activeness of the group. If WRITHE FIVE was any indication of what is to come, Gulf Park has great expectations for the coming season.

JET MASKERS

Mayna Ray

Gulf Park's theatrical group, Jet Maskers, has been busy this year. Their past two stage productions, Rive Five and the Miracle Worker, were tremendous successes (especially at Keesler). But that is not all! ! Under the supervision of their sponsors, Mrs. Boyd and Miss Picking, the group is planning a trip to New Orleans to see a live stage production in January. They are also planning a Christmas party where the members can display their talents in various skits.

On November 12, the fabulous Mac Gibbs was the honorable guest at a Jet Maskers meeting where he gave the group a lesson in the art of stage makeup.

Chris Cadigan

There are about twenty-seven energetic singing girls who take pride in being a member of the Gulf Park Glee Club. They have seven great officers, starting with Muffet Triggs as President; Shauna Annin as Vice-President; Carol Craven as Secretary; Donna Thompson as Treasurer; Patti Schrader and LeMoine Otjen as Librarians; and Susie Cole as Historian.

Right now they are practicing hard for our Christmas concert which is going to be a real hit, thanks to Mr. Christmas, the fantastic pianist and Mr. Spell, our new director.

Mr. Spell claims that they could be the best college singing group on the Coast.

They performed on December 18 one of the masterpieces of Benjajmin Britten — A Ceremony of Carols.

TERESA AT GULF PARK

by

Jeanne Price

Students and faculty of Gulf Park College were entertained this fall by the Spanish dances of Teresa Torkanouwky and the music of her guitarist, Jim Woods, of New Orleans; Teresa delighted her audience with the presentation of four spirited dances. These were variations of classical and Flamenco dances: the Jeta, a peasant folk dance; the Soleares, a more solemn dance; the Alegrias, a gay dance of rapid footwork; and the Sevillia which was done in classical form. She was accompanied in three of these dances by Jim's guitar. The classical form was accompanied by piano. Jim also played two Flamenco numbers.

Teresa has staged a number of Spanish dances in New Orleans. She was joined in these performances by her group of local students, including her daughter Maria.

Teresa has completed a six week introductory Spanish dancing course with a group of Gulf Park students here at the dance studio. She plans to return in January for a ten week course which will be for beginning and intermediate students.

RUSH PARTIES

by

Clare Davenport

The week of Rush began at 7 o'clock the night of September 23 when the student body split into three sections and went to their first informal parties. The girls, upon arriving at Hardy, were greeted by Kappa Chi; at Elizabeth by Delta Alpha; and at Lloyd by Sigma Psi. After the girls were introduced to the officers and other actives, they then proceeded to fill out information sheets. The rest of the time was spent talking to the actives and enjoying the refreshments while looking through the scrapbooks and over the awards won the preceding year. The same procedure took place again when the girls went to their second and last rush party for that night.

Tuesday night followed the same schedule as Monday night with the changing of the sororities to Delta Chi in Hardy, Theta Alpha in Elizabeth, and Gamma Psi in Lloyd. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights were devoted to the sororities' skits, performed in the auditorium and speech workshop. On Wednesday night, Delta Alpha carried out the theme of "Hey, Look Us Over," playing several visiting young men looking over the girls on Gulf Park campus, who came to the conclusion that the Delta Alpha girls were the best. Theta Alpha also carried the theme that night of "There's Nothing Fishy About Theta Alpha." They showed how the actives opened up their hearts in a lively, jovial, frolicsome way to the rushees by trying to make them feel a part of the group. Thursday night Gamma Psi entertained in "Hernando's Hideaway" with the Roaring 20s set in a scene of ragtime and blues. "Welcome to Deltachisia Land," the theme of Delta Chi portrayed the first few days of a college girl and how she decided on Delta Chi as the sorority of her choice. Friday night brought with it Sigma Psi carrying out the theme of the perfect isle in the South Pacific, "Sigma Isle," where some college girls found out all about college life and what a sorority really means. Kappy Chi brought rush week to a close as its actives acted out sisterhood, fun, knowledge, friendship, and the inner treasure by their theme, "Enchanted Isle of Kappa Chi." So ended a wonderful week, and the starting of many friendships.

HALOWEEN AND HOT CHOCOLATE

RAT DAY

by

Jeanne Mosher

Rat Day was held at Gulf Park College on October 12, 1968. Many proud rushees, attired in their grubbiest old clothes with their hair braided up into countless pigtails, became actives of their chosen sorority.

Each of the six sororities, Delta Alpha, Delta Chi, Kappa Chi, Gamma Psi, Sigma Psi, and Theta Alpha, under the Panhellenic Council, planned various "jobs" for their pledges to do. The Delta Alphas had the responsibility of cleaning out the Y-Hut along with the Delta Chiis scrubbing out the new Panhellenic House. Gamma Psis had the pleasure of cleaning out the Freshman Fountain with toothbrushes, while the Kappa Chis picked up all the acrons under the Friendship Oak. While all this was taking place, the Sigma Psis swept the entire driveway, and the Theta Alphas picked up trash from the grounds all over the campus. These jobs terminated at noon. The afternoon found the little sisters with clothes to iron, furniture to paint, rooms to clean, and various other jobs to do for their big sisters.

When the day ended, Gulf Park College had one hundred and eighty girls who had become actives in one of the six sororities. This closed for another year, the anticipation and excitement of Rat Day.

WELLS HANGEN

by

Candy Krause

Gulf Park was privileged to hear NBC's chief Far Eastern correspondent, Wells Hangen, speak for more than an hour on the overall situation in the Far East, on Monday, October 21, 1968. Following Mr. Hangen's address pertinent questions by the audience centered not only on Vietnam, but also other countries, including Red China, Thailand, Berlin, Israel, and Czechoslavakia.

Mr. Hangen, who has returned recently to the United States from a three and a half year duty tour in Asia, cited hope for solving the war in Vietnam, but stated there could be no decisive victory for either side. Both he felt, could reconcile issues without suffering too great a loss.

Mr. Hangen also dispelled the domino theory and stated flatly that the United States must take cognizance of its abilities in the light of its commitments over the world, make an evaluation and act accordingly. Not only did Mr. Hangen's speech bring us to date on world issues but also opened for us new patterns of thought.

A reception was held in Hardy Hall following Mr. Hangen's talk. An arrangement of chrysanthemums adorned the serving table of lace cloth. On Tuesday, before returning by plane to Washington, D. C., Mr. Hangen was to complete a tour of part of the Coast, escorted by Dean Johnson.

DON CHRISTMAS CONCERT PERFECT

by

Shauna Annin

Many times as the sun sets on Gulf Park, the music building lights up and Don Christmas begins his many hours of practice. The results of these practices were finally appreciated by the students and faculty under Friendship Oak early this October.

The concert contained a group of songs written by Dave Brubeck and interpreted by Mr. Christmas. Mr. Christmas' feelings for music were impressed upon all who watched and listened as he played. The concert was an example of the age old saying "Practice makes perfect," which Mr. Christmas exemplified well.

The audience was left with a better understanding of Mr. Brubeck's purpose in writing music and a realization of Mr. Christmas' superb talents.

ACTION

by

Carole Schoo

This year the Action Club has been formed for all students interested in sociology. The club has become involved in several community projects including working with retarded children, supervising children's activities, teaching children's interdenominational Sunday School and helping those recuperating from mental illness in a social and recreational setting.

The following officers have been elected: Nancy Lou Dennis, President; Bunny Wilson, Program Committee; Denby Franklin, Service Committee Chairman; and Kathy Kuntz, Publicity.

SECRETARIAL SCIENCE CLUB

Pam McElroy

The Secretarial Science Club was organized as a social activity for the members of the business department. At the beginning of the year, members of the club published the annual student directory, containing names, addresses and telephone numbers of students attending Gulf Park College. The club also co-sponsors the annual spring fashion revue. The final activity of the Secretarial Science Club is to sponsor an early evening boat ride from Gulfport to Biloxi then to Ship Island and back. With Miss Brock as sponsor and Betty Isles as president, the club will surely have an exciting year laid out for them.

STUDENTS ATTEND HOME ECONOMICS CONVENTION

by

Sue Pope

Four home economics students from Gulf Park College journeyed to Jackson, Mississippi for the Mississippi Home Economics Association's 59th Annual Convention. The trip was taken the weekend of October 31 - November 2.

Those who attended were: Lynn Martin, President; Suzanne Lybarger, Vice-President; Muffet Triggs and Susie Cole, who led the mixer. Faculty advisors are Mrs. Berta Patton and Mrs. Jerry Carter.

Scheduled events which took place included sessions of lectures on subject such as "Clothing and Textiles," "Foods and Nutrition," "Family Economics and Home Management," "Child Development and Family Relations."

The students also attended the College Club Section and heard a lecture on "The Housing Characteristics of Selective Countries in Europe" given by Dr. Mary Wallace Cooper. The National Convention will be held in Boston, Massachusetts, June 1969.

SAMOVAR CLUB

by

Toni Hoth

The Samovar Club of Gulf Park College is an organization of art students for the benefit of the school. The club takes on various projects such as poster making for school activities. In the spring the club sponsors an Art Fair. The Fair displays some art works which Gulf Park students have done during the year.

The club s officers include: President, Maere Chandler; Vice-President, Barbara Beneke; Secretary, Berta Sours; Treasurer, Helen Varner; and Publicity Chairman, Diane Stewart. The club's sponsor is Miss Laura Wilkinson. Miss Wilkinson, an art instructor at the college, believes this year's Samovar Club will be one of the best Gulf Park has ever had.

I took a walk down the highway one night,

TRIP TO SHIP ISLAND

by
Roseann Schmutzler

One of the most interesting trips made by the girls of Gulf Park each year is the one to Ship Island, a small island off the Mississippi Coast.

On a beautiful Sunday, September 22, they embarked for the island by a fascinating ferry trip from the Gulfport, Mississippi harbor. Upon reaching the island all the students gathered in "Fort Massachusetts," an old fort used in the Civil War, to sing songs and to listen to an impromptu sermon given by Dean Johnson. Lunch followed these activities and the girls could soon be seen enjoying the sun and the surf of the beautiful island. Many happy but very sunburned girls returned to Gulf Park later that afternoon with a clearer understanding of why the trip to Ship Island is a traditional event.

PENSACOLA WEEKEND

by
Roseann Schmutzler

A group of 150 very sleepy, but very excited girls embarked on a dream-filled weekend at Pensacola Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, on Saturday, Oct. 3.

After the girls arrived and met their escorts, they set out for a fun-filled afternoon of football by attending the Navy-Marine game.

The evening festivities began with the girls and their dates attending dinner in the commissioned officers' dining hall. Following dinner everyone was taken to the Mustin Beach Officers' Club where they were welcomed by the base Commander to the Regimental Ball. Two great bands and the Men's Glee Club entertained the guests, with the evening being completed by the selection of a Queen's Court. Carol Craven and her escort, Jim Abrams were chosen "Mr. and Miss America."

On Sunday the girls and their escorts attended breakfast and church services together. In the afternoon they rounded out the weekend by attending a beach party at Mustin Beach where dancing and swimming were enjoyed by all. Later that afternoon the girls boarded their buses for the return trip to Gulf Park with many fond memories.

INTERNATIONAL DEBUTANTE

Miss Connie Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Adams, 2602 Tanglewood Trail, Austin, Texas, will be presented as a 1968 International Debutante at the Presentation Ball, Dec. 30, in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

Fifty-eight girls will be presented, including 19 from foreign countries.

Connie's presentation gown, a Helen Rose original, is fashioned in white steron silk.

She has been presented at the Austin Symphony Ball, was a Duchess from Austin in 1968, to the Neches River Festival in Beaumont and will be presented as a Junior Helping Hand Debutante in Austin during her spring vacation.

During this past summer, she toured Europe.

Gulf Park Spirit in Sports

THE SPIRIT STICK

The spirit stick, a new prize awarded in sorority sports, was won by Theta Alpha for outstanding sportsmanship and spirit displayed in the volleyball touurnament held at Gulf Park on December 7. The sports chairman of each sorority had chosen twelve players for her team; the team then practiced for several weeks, anticipating the coming tournament.

Players on Delta Alpha's team were Anne Lowrey, Lulu Lister, Karolyn Bayley, Betty Blackburn, Tischa Wood, Libba Holman, Pat Eyles, Betty Jean Eyles, Nancy Groseclose, Lila Porter, Jo Ann Ballman, and Jeannie Wolfenbarger. The team was coached by Karolyn Bayley.

Players on Delta Chi's team were Augusta Poellnitz, Mary Filson, Carol Parker, Sharon Murphy, Marilyn Blaske, Susan Jaffe, Lenora Elder, Susan Woolwine, and Tiffany LaCour. The team was coached by Marilyn Blaske.

Players on Thete Alpha's team were Ann Cooper, Jan Bigger, Sandi Haughton, Joan Velenga, Ann Nicholas, Pam McElroy, Nan Tribble, Celeste Bland, Lee Ann Hutchinson, Jeannie Mosher, Carol Craven, and Ann Smith. The team was coached by Kathi Abrahamson.

Players on Kappa Chi's team were Sue Stephens, Betty Keenan, Jessica Turnbull, Laura Wides, Jan Cooper, Becky Hardy, Laura Williams, Betsy Hogg, Pam Newell, Bet Norwood, Marianne Nevill, and Vicki Eshelman. The team was coached by Betty Keenan.

Players on Gamma Psi's team were Lee Ann Bailey, Stephanie Reynolds, Julie Cofield, Kathy Hagemeyer, Cheryl Fisher, Cathy Latham, Glenda Mansell, Sheryne Summers, Toni Hoth, Jean Meisenheimer, Tish Parker, and Pat Dorathy. The team was coached by Lee Ann Bailey.

Players on Sigma Phi's team were Sherri McNeil, Mimi Smith, Mary Waters, Marcy McDowell, Madelyn Wild, Gayle Maurin, Nancy Preston, Lolly Lynn, Penny Copper, Sandy Boone, Becky Britton, and Muffet Triggs. The team was coached by Muffet Triggs.

After close games, much effort on the part of the players, and good sportsmanship by all, Kappa Chi won the coveted award and Delta Chi placed second.

BIT & SPUR CLUB

by
Dora Hill

The Bit and Spur Club, consisting of girls who share a common interest in horses, elected Kathy Murphy as Presiident, Eleanor Highbaugh as Vice-President, Lou Thompson as Secretary, Rozzie Bird as Treasurer, and Susan Turner as Historian with Miss Bruce Wilder as their sponsor.

Though still quite early in the year, the club has attended and participated in three horse shows. At the St. Martin's Charity Horse Show in New Orleans the girls are reported to have had a nice time but returned empty handed for their efforts.

The Folsom Charity Horse Show, in Folsom, Louisiana, proved more profitable. Jan Cooper placed third in the Novice Jumping event riding her own horse, Crispy. Kathy Murphy placed fourth in Hunter Hack. In the English pleasure event, Joan Vellenga, Susan Jaffe and Cheryl Fisher each placed. In the Mobile Deep South Horse Show in Mobile, Alabama, the riders made an excellent showing. Susan Turner placed fourth in the Three Gaited Pony class on College Bay, the school's horse. She did even better riding her own horses, returning to campus with two reserve championship ribbons and a ninth place ribbon. In the English Pleasure class Lou Thompson placed fourth on Chiico and Kathy Murphy placed sixth on J. J. Max.

THE WALK

by
Sally Sockwell
1968 Sophomore

I went for a walk in the forest one day
To watch the animals all at play.
They laughed and they talked just to me
A happier sight, you never would see.
We danced and we played all the day through
Till the sun went down and the morning sprung dew.

*Author's note: I am now in Bellvue Sanitorium but hope to be released soon.

It's Christmas

The joy of Christmas is in sharing with others. That joy shines from every face of the Gulf Park girl — she cared enough to share with a group of children less fortunate. Christmas for all will be happier.

Their helping hands and magical fingers will make it easier for children whose hands do not coordinate and whose feet find it hard to walk. A true Christmas gift from two lovely ladies. Thank you.

A SACRED JOY

by

Mary Finch

Freshman

I pity a person that reaches out into life to find any happiness. For it is only through sorrow can we find real joy. Only the blind can see the true beauty of shapes and colors. Only the crippled may sense the excitement of running across a hot road on a warm summer's day. It is the childless wife who understands the sweetness of a baby's lonely cry, and the deaf only who realize the meaning of every word spoken. Life is filled with joy, but it can not truly be lived until it has something to live for.

HAPPINESS IS THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT AT GPC

The Yuletide Season at Gulf Park College was a festive time of merrymaking. The spirit began December 6th at midnight when all the girls were snug in their beds. Messengers from the Student Government visited each dormitory, gathering the girls and house mothers to Hardy Reception Room. The surprise — a beautiful Christmas tree, adorned with lights, ornaments, and a shiny bright star crowning the ecerscent vision. To close the perfect evening there was hot chocolate, cookies, and the joyous sound of familiar carols.

The following Sunday, December 8th, was the annual tea given by the Student Government for the faculty, staff, and members of the board. All of the local ministers were also cordially invited.

December 13th, the sororities entertained the underprivileged children of the Gulf Coast Salvation Army with a Christmas party. The cheery gathering, complete with a tree, gifts, refreshments, and many new friendships, was honored by the presence of a special host, Jolly Saint Nick himself!

The most exciting event of the Yuletide Setason at Gulf Park was the Christmas Ball . . . Held on December 14 it was an occasion fondly remembered by all attending. From the girls in their formal attire, to the red, green and gold trim about the room and of course the music provided by George Wood's Soul Band, the affair was a success.

From the decorating of the tree to the banquet and the Glee Club caroling the eve before, the holidays began surely you agree . . . Happiness truly was the Christmas Spirit at Gulf Park College!

SPRING CLEANING

by

Donna Milner

Sophomore

I cleaned my heart out yesterday,
I forced myself to throw away
All the past, foolish hoard
Of memories and dreams
Which I'd stored.
Courageously I cleared each room
Sweeping it with Reason's own broom
Til every little corner was bare
Not even a memory was Left lingering there,
No dreams, no cluttered
Could - have - beens.
And then I discovered
You'd crept back in.

President William T. Sadler is pictured on the beach in front of Gulf Park College, talking with a group of students.
